

Nevada Farm Bureau – Dave Fulstone II Scholarship Award

Dave Fulstone II was a past president of the Nevada Farm Bureau who dedicated his life to the well-being of Nevada Agriculture. He was passionate in his support of a sustainable agriculture industry in Nevada and was never afraid to tackle the tough issues or face strong opponents in defense of the agriculture industry and producers. The scholarship committee desires to provide financial assistance to students who exemplify those characteristics.

Amount: One $1000 award will be available.

Application deadline: Must be postmarked by April 1, 2020

Who may apply: The 2020 scholarship award is open to any student graduating from an accredited Nevada High School in 2020 and furthering their education in a course of study pertaining to agriculture.

Application procedure: Students wishing to apply for this scholarship should send the completed application along with a copy of their most current high school transcript and two (2) letters of recommendation to:

Dave Fulstone Scholarship Committee
c/o Nevada Farm Bureau
